Competition and timing

It will consist of five sets with a maximum of 150 participants per set. Timing will be taken an electronic chip in the ankle and the arrival time will be in the top of the leader when it is stepped on the carpet.

Popular Series: The 5th series is open for those who want to participate in a more playful way; swimmers with fancy dress, who want to swim with companions of other categories - such as: families - (from the Minor category to the Master E and Disabled, male and female) and /or for those who do not want to participate in a very competitive or intense way.

This series will not have a prize, but the time will be recorded, so that there will be a final classification that will be published with the rest of the results. There will be no arbitration control, but the time will be registered with the chip.

Exist the possibility to take part in this series and previously have it done in another competitive.

In the case of loss of the chip an amount of € 10 will be paid.

Route

About the copa nadal

It was established in 1907. It's considered the first open-water swimming race of the state and one of the oldest ones from Europe.

The first winner was Poeschke Ewald, with a time of 3.17.2.

1928 had the first female participation with Maria Lluïsa Vigo as the winner.

Carles Ventosa has held the course record in male category since 1994 with a time of 1.51.05 while the female record has been held since 1992 by Barbara Bernus with a time of 2. 03.89

Male swimmers who have won the race the most times include Dani Serra who has won 10 times, followed by David Royo who has won seven times and Joaquim Cuadrada, Robert Queralt, Antoni Corell and Guillem Pujol who have all won five times each.

Female swimmers who have won the race the most times include Carme Soriano with six times followed by Mari Bernet and Esther Nuñez with five times each.

Swimmer Josep Bernal, winner in 1943, returned to take part in 1993; celebrating the 50th Anniversary while swimmer Jordi Casas took part in 2018 celebrating his 65 year of participation.

For the 87th race the highlight was the change of venue, beginning at the iconic Portal de la Pau, facing Colon Monument. The route ran parallel to "Rambla del Mar".

In relation to the "Aldees Infantiles SOS" Trophy given to the largest families registered together, a notable highlight (with 5 members) was Valmaña-Pi in the 95th Edition and Esforzado-Chillida in the 98th edition, and with 11 members was Tresens in the 103th Edition.
